Dear sir:

I have this day shipped to you
by express, as a gift to your library, the Catalogues of this Library as have been printed since 1876. Will you be kind to acknowledge the receipt thereof at your earliest convenience? I should be glad of any criticism or suggestion in regard to which you may feel disposed to make examination.

Very respectfully,

P R E F A C E.

In the Annual Report of this Library for the year ending June 30, 1875, the following suggestion concerning a new catalogue was made:

"The plan which ought to be pursued hereafter is to let the so-called complete catalogue consist of separate class catalogues, which can be sold at a merely nominal price to the persons interested in the various departments, and which can be reprinted at small cost whenever they are out of date by reason of large accessions."

The three parts of Prose Fiction contained in the present volume form one of the main divisions of the general catalogue. The other divisions are as follows: a) Poetry and the Drama; b) the Fine Arts, including the History of Art; c) the Useful Arts; d) the Natural Sciences; e) the Medical Sciences; f) History, Biography, Geography and Travels; g) America and American History; h) Politics, Political Economy, and Social Science; i) Philology, Philosophy, and Pædagogics; j) the Biblical and Theological Sciences.

These divisions are not made in accordance with any philosophical classification of human knowledge. The general catalogue is separated into the above parts for the convenience of the public, and for the reason that this is the only method known to the compiler (except that of printing supplement after supplement), by which the printed catalogue in book form can be made to keep pace at all with the increase of books in a library like this.

It is proposed to reprint entire, with all the additions to the library up to the date of issue, each part as soon as the edition is exhausted. The price at which the various parts are sold is made to cover the cost of printing.

It will be seen that more information is given in the present volume than is customary in a mere "class-list" of fiction, and that some new features have been introduced. There are imperfections and errors, of course. Any one noticing such will confer a favor by pointing them out, in order that they may be remedied in future editions.

EXPLANATIONS,

To find any book or story in this catalogue, look either under the name of the author or for the first word of the title, except such word be A, An or The, in which case look for the second word. Books are entered under the real name of the author when that is known, under the pseudonym, or assumed name, when it is not; and where only the initials of an author are known, the last initial is put first. Compound surnames are entered under the first part of the name. Names or initials enclosed in parentheses are such as are usually not retained. The names in parentheses printed in italics, and not preceded by the word "formerly," are the pseudonyms of the authors whose real names they follow:

For example: Dickens, Charles (John Hougham). (Boz).

Where the words In or With occur in connection with a title, they indicate a shorter story published or bound with others, except in some instances where the reference is to the collected works of an author.

In the case of translations the original title is usually printed in parentheses:

For example: Dumas, A. (D.) CONSCRIPT, The: an historical novel of the days of the first Napoleon. (Tr. of Conscience l'innocent).

EXPLICATIONS.

Pour trouver un conte ou un livre dans ce catalogue, voyez le nom de l'auteur ou le premier mot du titre, à moins que ce ne soient pas les mots un, une, le, la, les, en quel cas on trouvera l'œuvre sous le second mot de son titre.

Les livres sont inscrits sous le nom réel de l'auteur, quand il est connu, autrement sous le pseudonyme (nom suppose), ou sous le titre, quand l'œuvre est anonyme (sans nom de l'auteur).

Les noms mis entre parenthèse sont ceux, dont l'auteur ordinairement ne fait pas usage ; mais, quand ils suivent les noms réels des auteurs et sont imprimés en italiques, ce sont des pseudonymes.

Par exemple : About, Edmond (François-Valentin).

Dudevant, Mme. A. L. A. D. (George Sand).

Quand les mots dans ou avec se lient à un titre, ils indiquent que c'est un petit conte publié ou relié avec autres, sauf les cas où dans désigne le rapport aux œuvres recueillies ou complètes d'un auteur.

Erklärung.

Die Bücher eines jeden Schriftstellers, soweit die Bibliothek sie besitzt, sind unter seinem wahren Namen aufgezählt. Wenn der Verfasser sich eines falschen oder fingirten Namens (Pseudonyms) bedient hat, so findet man denselben in gesperrter Schrift in Parenthese beigelegt. Die sonst eingeklammerten Namen sind meistens die weniger bekannten Taufnamen des Betreffenden. Z. B.:

Vigius, Albert (Jeremias Gottheff).

Hoffmann, (Alexander Friedrich) Franz.

Bei Uebersetzungen aus fremden Sprachen ist fast überall der Originaltitel in lateinischen Buchstaben mit angegeben. Z. B.:

Dumas, A. (D.) Gott und Teufel (Conscience l'innocent.)
